Faith2Action is launching a state-wide radio campaign this week beginning with 30-second ads to run in the Columbus, Delaware, Lancaster, Mansfield, Findlay, Defiance, Lima, Steubenville, and South East Ohio regions.

More than 500 churches, reaching nearly half a million pro-life Christians, have already agreed to distribute Heartbeat Bill church bulletin inserts urging for calls, meetings, and action to pass the Heartbeat Bill this year. The Ohio House passed the Heartbeat Bill (H.B. 125) 54-44 on June 28 – five months ago.

"There is no longer any doubt. An Atrium overflowing with constituents, thousands of phone calls, two out of three Ohioans and eight out of ten Republicans want a Heartbeat Law. If thousands of Ohio voices haven't moved these Senators, perhaps tens of thousands making direct contact will show that the people of Ohio want House Bill 125 to pass this year," said Janet Porter, president of Faith2Action, and coordinator of the Heartbeat Bill.

"The state-wide radio and grassroots campaign begins this week with the participation of more than 500 churches across the state." added Porter.

Heartbeat Bill Bumper stickers and magnetic strips similar to the Billboard ads being launched by Ohio ProLife Action can now be ordered at www.HeartBeatBill.com where Heartbeat church bulletin inserts will be available for download.
